SAINTS 7, ASAHS 0.

P. A. C.'S CHINESE 0.

(From Monday Advertiser.)

Neither of the losers in the double-header at Athletic Park yesterday afternoon could score a run, the Saints winning from the Asahis by a score of 7 to 0 while the Portuguese Athletic Club won from the All-Chinese by a score of 2 to 0.

As an exhibition of the great American pastime, the first game was devoid of features outside of Janssen's pitching and the fans simply sat back and patiently waited for it to be panned. The Asahis, minus their manager, played a listless sort of a game and the seven errors they contributed gave the Saints all of their hits.

Big Francis Barney Joy was on hand to do the pitching for the Saints but was outwitted by the Asahis in the first inning, when they scored three runs on hits and errors. Barney worked out there a week ago and having been handed three iron men for his services, thought perhaps three more iron men in the hand were worth twenty on the bush. Anyway, Barney's desertion of the colors is what caused Janssen to go to the hill for the Collegians.

Just what action the league will take toward Barney remains to be seen but rumors have it that he is to be sent to the balance of the season. P. S.—Barney should worry.

Ted Sloan In Form
In beating the Chinese in the closer of the double-header, the P. A. C. boys still figure in the pennant race while the Chinese by losing, are out and at the best can finish no better than second.

According to little Willie Raposa, the Puns are out in front with one more game to play. If they lose this and Parens can win his two, then the Puns will be tied for the lead.

In yesterday's game, the P. A. C.'s sent Ted Sloan to the hill and the young man with the slow-going feet certainly pitched a great game of ball. W. Tin Chong's bunch found him for but four dinky singles while he fanned ten, and did not walk a man or make a battery or fielding error. His team mates gave Ted nice support too, Sloan, the imitator of barn yard birds, being the only man to bobble and that was on a hard chance.

For the All-Chinese, Luck Yee did the bending and he pitched a two-hit game, but those two hits came in one inning and gave the P. A. C. a tally. The other tally was a gift.

How Runs Were Made
After Sloan had fanned off the opening round, Bushnell received transportation to first. On the next pitched ball he romped over to second and an error by Ki in throwing wild to second gave Bushnell third, while a wild pitch to third by Chong in center, gave a fiery plate.

In the fourth inning, Bushnell scored again. Cracking one to right for a single he took second on an out and then dented the rubber when La Mere drove one to right for three bases.

With two out in the third Kani Fat caught a hit but it was useless. In the sixth Yap gathered one and stole second but Lai Tin popped out to first while Kuaili and Ki fanned. Luck Yee made the third single for the A.C.'s but died at first. Kin Luke caught the next one but was out in an attempted steal of second. In the ninth, Luck Yee got through an error but was forced at second by Lai Tin. Tin then proceeded to steal second and third. This was as far as he got though for as he tried to steal home, Kuaili popped out to La Mere and the game was panned.

HONOLULU SENDS BIG DELEGATION TO CIVIC CONFAB

Kilauea Sails With Large Representation of Leading Business Men of City

(From Saturday Advertiser.)

Captain Berger marched his "merry band of musickers" down to the waterfront at the head of the Honolulu delegation leaving on the good ship Kilauea to attend the civic convention in Maui at nine-thirty o'clock last night, and much to the surprise of those in line, marched them right aboard.

The crowd that left for Maui was a jolly one. Just before the Kilauea cast off her lines President Farrington discovered that a mascot had not been provided for, and seeing young Extra being hit by a ball, he stepped forward as he embarked on this perilous trip, seized the lad and practically "chugged" him.

Scouts from the Ad Club were searching among the crowd for other victims, but met with no success.

The Kilauea sailed on her mission of education and good fellowship promptly at ten o'clock.

Lavish Entertainment

The Maui Chamber of Commerce has arranged a splendid program for the convention, which will keep the visitors from the various islands busy from the moment they arrive in Wailuku. The convention will open at ten o'clock tomorrow morning, and from that time until ten o'clock Monday night the delegates will be fully occupied, either with the business of the convention or with the numerous forms of entertainment which have been prepared for them.

The Maui delegation will be on hand in Wailuku to greet all comers from Oahu and Kauai, and guide them to their stopping places. The Hawaii delegation of thirty-five members of the Hilo board of trade arrived in Wailuku yesterday morning.

The convention will open with an address of welcome by W. F. Pogue. There will be two sessions of the convention today, and P. F. Baldwin, president of the Maui Chamber of Commerce, will preside over all sessions.
